Sisters of Mercy Development Advisory Council Recruitment and Appointment Process

Nomination of Potential members

The Director of Development will solicit potential Council members from as many knowledgeable sources as possible to broaden the expertise of the Council membership.

Process

- 1. The potential candidate will be notified by the director of development of his/her nomination and invited to an information session.
- 2. The information session will explain values, mission and services of the Sisters of Mercy, the role and function of the Advisory Council, meeting schedule, and terms of membership.
- 3. At the closure of the information session, a determination of persons wishing to be considered for appointment will be made.
- 4. The development director in consultation with the liaison from the leadership team will select the persons to serve on the Advisory Council and forward a letter of appointment to the Development Advisory Council prospective candidate.
